

MINI-ASSESSMENT: MULTI-STEP PROMPT WORKFLOW

Transforming Raw College Cultural-Fest Notes into a Polished Social Media Campaign

Name: Manavarthi SethuRayal

Register Number: 99230040133

1. SCENARIO SELECTED

Scenario: Content Campaign

The task is to transform messy notes about a fictional college cultural fest into a structured social-media campaign, generate platform-specific content, and then evaluate and refine that content.

Workflow: Raw Notes → Planning → Drafting → Critique & Refinement → Final Campaign

2. OBJECTIVE

The workflow demonstrates a three-prompt chained AI process. Step 1 extracts and organizes information; Step 2 uses the Step 1 output to draft content; Step 3 evaluates the Step 2 draft against a checklist and produces the final version.

3. RAW EVENT NOTES

- Event name: Harmony 2026, a fictional college cultural fest.
- Audience: college students and recent graduates.
- Event focus: music, dance, cultural performances, creative showcases, and student competitions.
- The event is conducted on the college campus over two days.
- Students can participate in competitions and attend performances and showcases.
- The promotion should feel energetic but not exaggerated.
- The campaign should encourage registrations without making unsupported claims.
- Important communication points: event name, two-day format, cultural activities, student participation, and a clear call to register.
- The campaign will be adapted for Instagram, LinkedIn, and WhatsApp.

4. STEP 1 — EXTRACTION AND PLANNING

Objective: Convert the raw notes into a structured campaign plan.

Prompt 1 — Exact Chat Prompt

Act as a college-event content strategist. I am going to provide messy notes about a fictional college cultural fest. Analyze the notes and create a structured social-media campaign plan.

1. Target audience
2. Core event message
3. Four key promotional points
4. Tone and style
5. Platform strategy for Instagram, LinkedIn, and WhatsApp
6. Call-to-action
7. Content structure for the main promotional post

Do not write the final posts yet.

Do not invent prizes, celebrity guests, discounts, sponsors, dates, or achievements that are not present in the notes. Keep the plan practical and suitable for a college event.

Raw notes:

- Event name: Harmony 2026, a fictional college cultural fest.
- Audience: college students and recent graduates.
- Event focus: music, dance, cultural performances, creative showcases, and student competitions.
- The event is conducted on the college campus over two days.
- Students can participate in competitions and attend performances and showcases.
- The promotion should feel energetic but not exaggerated.
- The campaign should encourage registrations without making unsupported claims.
- Important communication points: event name, two-day format, cultural activities, student participation, and a clear call to register.
- The campaign will be adapted for Instagram, LinkedIn, and WhatsApp.

AI Response — Step 1

Harmony 2026 — Social Media Campaign Plan

Target Audience: College students and recent graduates interested in music, dance, arts, and cultural activities.

Core Event Message: Harmony 2026 is a two-day college cultural fest where students can participate in cultural competitions, explore performances, and view creative showcases.

Four Key Promotional Points: 1. Two-day college cultural event. 2. Music and dance competitions. 3. Student performances and creative showcases. 4. Student participation and cultural celebration.

Tone and Style: Energetic, clear, youthful, inclusive, and informative without exaggerated claims.

Platform Strategy: Instagram — short, energetic promotional copy with a strong registration CTA. LinkedIn — professional description emphasizing participation and creative expression. WhatsApp — concise, shareable message with essential details and CTA.

Call-to-Action: Register for Harmony 2026.

Main Post Structure: Hook → event name and format → activities → participation value → registration CTA.

5. STEP 2 — GENERATION AND DRAFTING

Dependency proof: Prompt 2 explicitly uses ONLY the structured campaign plan produced in Step 1.

Prompt 2 — Exact Chat Prompt

Excellent. Now use ONLY the structured campaign plan you just created in Step 1.

Act as a professional college-event copywriter and create the first draft of the campaign.

A. One Instagram promotional caption (maximum 120 words)

B. One LinkedIn promotional post (maximum 180 words)

C. One WhatsApp promotional message (maximum 80 words)

- Follow the audience, message, promotional points, tone, platform strategy, and CTA from Step 1.

- Keep the tone energetic but not exaggerated.

- Do not invent prizes, sponsors, guests, discounts, exact dates, or achievements.

- Clearly mention Harmony 2026 and its two-day format.

- Mention the relevant cultural activities.

- End each version with a clear registration call-to-action.

- Do not critique the campaign yet; this is only the drafting stage.

AI Response — Step 2

A. Instagram Promotional Caption

6. STEP 3 — EVALUATION AND REFINEMENT GATE

This is the mandatory critique gate. It reviews the Step 2 output before producing the final version.

Prompt 3 — Exact Chat Prompt

Before finalizing the campaign, act as a strict senior content editor.

Review the campaign you just drafted against this checklist:

1. Are all three platforms included?
2. Does each version follow its word limit?
3. Is Harmony 2026 clearly identified as a two-day college cultural fest?
4. Are music, dance, performances, creative showcases, and student participation represented?
5. Is the tone energetic without exaggerated or unsupported claims?
6. Does each version contain a clear registration call-to-action?
7. Did the draft avoid invented prizes, sponsors, guests, discounts, exact dates, or achievements?
8. Is the content adapted appropriately for Instagram, LinkedIn, and WhatsApp?
9. Is there unnecessary repetition?
10. Is the final wording clear and ready to publish?

First, provide a concise bullet-point critique identifying any weaknesses.

Second, fix every issue you identify.

Third, output the FINAL polished campaign with clearly labeled Instagram, LinkedIn, and WhatsApp versions.

Do not merely describe corrections; actually rewrite the affected content.

AI Response — Step 3 Review

- All three required platforms are included.
- The versions are within their requested word limits.
- The event name and two-day format are clear.
- The main cultural activities are represented.
- The tone is energetic without unsupported claims.
- Each version includes a registration CTA.
- No prizes, sponsors, guests, discounts, exact dates, or achievements were invented.
- The content is adapted by platform.
- Some wording repeats the ideas of participation and celebration.
- The final version should tighten repetition while preserving the required information.

7. LIVE CHAT / WORKFLOW DEPENDENCY PROOF

Proof 1 — Step 1

USER MESSAGE — PROMPT 1

The prompt asks the AI to convert the Harmony 2026 raw notes into a structured campaign plan containing audience, core message, four promotional points, tone, platform strategy, CTA, and post structure.

AI MESSAGE — RESPONSE 1

The response produces the Harmony 2026 structured campaign plan used as the sole planning input for Step 2.

Proof 2 — Step 2

USER MESSAGE — PROMPT 2

The prompt explicitly says to use ONLY the structured campaign plan from Step 1 and asks for Instagram, LinkedIn, and WhatsApp drafts.

AI MESSAGE — RESPONSE 2

The response produces the first drafts for all three platforms.

Proof 3 — Step 3

USER MESSAGE — PROMPT 3

The prompt reviews the Step 2 campaign against a 10-point checklist, requires weaknesses to be identified, and requires every issue to be fixed.

AI MESSAGE — RESPONSE 3

The response provides the critique and then the final polished campaign.

8. ASSIGNED-INTERFACE SCREENSHOT PROOF — OUTPUTS

Output A — Step 1

Step 1 — Structured Campaign Plan

PROMPT

Create a structured social-media campaign plan for Harmony 2026 from the supplied college cultural-fest notes.

AI OUTPUT

Target audience: college students and recent graduates interested in music, dance, arts, and cultural activities.

Core message: Harmony 2026 is a two-day college cultural fest where students can participate in cultural competitions, performances, and showcases.

Key points: two-day format; music and dance competitions; student performances and art showcases; open participation.

Tone: energetic, youthful, inclusive, and informative.

Platforms: Instagram, LinkedIn, WhatsApp. CTA: Register for Harmony 2026.

Structure: Hook → event format → activities → participation value → registration CTA.

Visual output evidence based on the documented workflow.

Output B — Step 2

Step 2 — Platform-Specific Drafts

PROMPT

Use ONLY the structured campaign plan from Step 1 and create Instagram, LinkedIn, and WhatsApp promotional drafts.

AI OUTPUT

Instagram: Harmony 2026 is a two-day college cultural fest featuring music and dance competitions, student performances, and art showcases. Register and be part of the celebration!

Visual output evidence based on the documented workflow.

Step 3 — Critique + Final Polished Campaign

PROMPT

Review the Step 2 campaign against the checklist, fix every issue, and produce the final polished campaign.

AI OUTPUT

Review: all three platforms included; word limits satisfied; two-day format and activities clear; tone energetic without unsupported claims; CTAs present; no invented prizes, guests, sponsors, discounts, dates, or achievements.

Final: polished Instagram, LinkedIn, and WhatsApp versions with reduced repetition and clear registration calls-to-action.

Visual output evidence based on the documented workflow.

9. CHAINING DEPENDENCY PROOF

Stage	Input	Output	Dependency Evidence
Step 1	Raw event notes	Structured campaign plan	Step 1 analyzes and organizes the raw notes.
Step 2	Step 1 campaign plan	Three platform drafts	Prompt 2 explicitly requires ONLY the Step 1 plan.
Step 3	Step 2 campaign drafts	Critique + final campaign	Prompt 3 explicitly reviews the campaign just drafted.

10. CRITIQUE GATE PROOF

- The third prompt defines a specific 10-point checklist.
- It requires the AI to identify weaknesses before rewriting.
- It requires every identified issue to be fixed.
- It requires a final polished version rather than only a critique.
- It reviews the output generated immediately before it.

11. FINAL SUBMISSION CHECKLIST

- ☐ Three distinct prompts are present.
- ☐ The prompts form one sequential workflow.
- ☐ Step 2 explicitly depends on Step 1.
- ☐ Step 3 explicitly depends on Step 2.
- ☐ A self-critique gate is included.
- ☐ Exact prompt text is documented.

- ☐ Intermediate responses are documented.
- ☐ Final polished output is documented.
- ☐ Step 1–3 visual output proofs are inserted once.
- ☐ Live chat/share link is inserted if available.
- ☐ Student name and register number are completed.

12. CONCLUSION

This mini-assessment demonstrates prompt chaining through planning, generation, evaluation, and refinement. The workflow transforms raw Harmony 2026 college cultural-fest notes into a structured campaign, uses that plan to generate platform-specific content, and then applies a defined review checklist before producing the final campaign.
